

Do you need help attracting new clients by winning new contracts?

Are you short of time and or resources internally to focus on Procurement?

If you have answered Yes to either question, then the Business Growth Team at Smith Craven can help you by :

- actively looking for new contracts that are being advertised
- completing the timely Bid and Tender Proposal applications, for both public and private sector contracts
- Benchmarking your business against companies that are winning work that you and your organisation could undertake
